Any Baby Can

Child & Family Resource Center

2005 Annual Report

July 1 through June 30, 2005

Any Baby Can
Child and Family
Resource Center

PROGRAM STATISTICS

Information and Referral for Children with Special Needs 	986 (223)
Early Childhood Intervention Services	390
CARE (Medical Case Management) Services	223
Candlelighters Families Served	98
Child/Parent Screening and Referral at East Austin Health Clinic 	475 (289)
Healthy and Fair Start (home-based)	377
Prenatal Education Program (home-based)	350
No Estas Solo (Counseling) Clients Served*	177
Parenting/Childcare Classes	1058
Literacy Training Participants	471
Respite Services Provided*	11
Emergency Assistance-Food, Utilities, Housing, Medications, Other*	499
Childbirth Classes Participants	227(20)

Total Number of Children and Their Families Served 4133

*Only provided to clients enrolled in agency programs so not included in total children and their families assisted

Overlap with specific program children deducted from total children and their families assisted

Race/Ethnicity of Clients

69% Hispanic
17% Anglo
11% African-American
3% Other

Residence of Clients

91% Travis County
6% Williamson County
3% Other (Includes Hays and Bastrop)

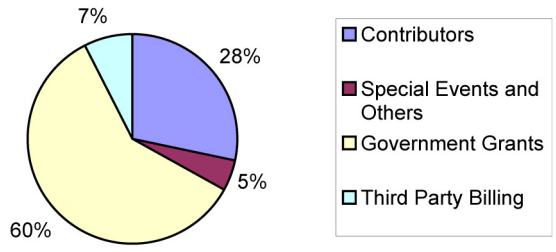
Income of Clients

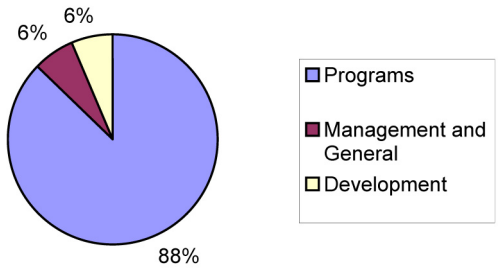
82% of families are below 150% of the Federal Poverty Income Level guidelines
14% of families are between 150% and 200% of the Federal Poverty Income Level guidelines
4% of families are above 200% of the Federal Poverty Income Level guidelines

2005 Federal Poverty Income Level Guideline: A family of 4 with annual income of $19,350 was considered to be at 100% of poverty

*The accuracy for client income data is limited by the following factors: income information for families receiving home visits is collected at the beginning of service, family income can fluctuate and income information is not collected for persons attending classes open to the public.

Revenue





Expenditures