Andy Miller Joins Any Baby Can as President and CEO

20-year Nonprofit Veteran with Extensive Experience in Public Health to Lead Any Baby Can

AUSTIN, June 20, 2014 - Any Baby Can is proud to announce the appointment of Andy Miller as President and CEO, effective July 14, 2014.

Miller comes to Any Baby Can with a wealth of experience in the nonprofit sector. Most recently, he co-founded Miller Stephens & Associates, a strategic consulting practice that helps nonprofit organizations find their mission-focus, build their brand and realize their true potential. Previously, he served as Executive Vice President of Operations for the LIVESTRONG Foundation, and throughout his 20 year tenure in the nonprofit sector, has been involved with a number of other health-related organizations.

Miller completed undergraduate work at Southwestern University in Georgetown and is a graduate of Leadership Austin. He received his Master's degree in Health Science Education from the University of Florida, and has built his career developing strategic partnerships and award-winning programs to improve the public's health.

"As a father of a young son, having the support to raise happy, healthy children is something I wish for all parents, and I am excited to lead Any Baby Can with that charge," says Miller. "The work being done by Any Baby Can plays a crucial role in the success of the Austin community as a whole, and I am proud to join such an excellent team," he adds.

"We are thrilled to welcome Andy to Any Baby Can and to have someone with such incredible expertise at the helm. Andy's professional career speaks for itself, and his passion for families is an inspiration to us all," says Any Baby Can Board Chair, Mary Carlson.
